

Office of the President
Harris University Alumni Association
July 9, 2025

Dr. Rolf Schwarz. DBA, EMBA, MBA

Dear Rolf,

It is with the highest regard and deepest respect that I formally congratulate you on being selected as a recipient of the President's Circle Award, the most distinguished honor granted by the Harris University Alumni Association.

This award is reserved for alumni who have demonstrated extraordinary leadership, made meaningful global contributions, and exemplified educational excellence throughout their professional and academic journeys. Your unwavering commitment to excellence, integrity, and service has not only distinguished you within your field but has also brought great honor to the Harris University community.

Your selection for this award reflects our shared belief in the transformative power of leadership, the enduring value of scholarship, and the global responsibility of alumni who carry the Harris name forward with purpose and pride.

On behalf of the entire association, and through the authority of the Office of Global Affairs and Alumni Advancement, it is my privilege to bestow upon you this recognition as a symbol of your lasting legacy.

We look forward to honoring your achievement and celebrating your continued impact on the world.

With sincere admiration and congratulations,

Sincerely,

Dr. David M. Biery, DBA, MBA
